PUBLIC LEDGER
MAYSVILLE, KY.

Maysville Weather.
What May Be Expected Here During the Next Thirty-six Hours.

THE LEDGER CODE.
White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN OF SNOW;
Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER STAY;
Black BELOW—COLDER WILL BE;
If black's not shown no change will be.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock tomorrow eve.

Joseph L. Taylor, pioneer citizen, died at Covington Saturday, aged 90.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran opened the Federal Court at Richmond this morning.

There was one addition to the Central Presbyterian at last evening's services.

Miss Laura Clay of Lexington was elected President of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association at the Newport meeting.

In a runaway at Sharpburg Mrs. T. J. Allen, Mrs. J. S. Sharp and small son, Bruce, were thrown out of their buggy, but not seriously hurt.

The foundation is finished for the handsome sarcophagus of the late S. N. Myer, and the superstructure is expected to arrive in a few days.

Thomas H. Sharp, aged 84, is dead at Sharpburg. He was a grandson of Moses Sharp, founder of the town, and for whom it was named.

Personal
Mrs. L. V. Davis is in Cincinnati today.
Mr. S. B. Chunn has returned from Cincinnati.
Mrs. Pat King and son, John, are visiting in Chicago.
Mr. Robert K. Allison is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Miss Eliza Piper of Carlisle is visiting relatives at Mayslick.
Misses Nellie Murphy and Nellie and Maggie Guilfoyle Sundayed at Paris.

Mr. Walter Finch of Hamilton, Mo., is on a visit to relatives in the county.

Miss Winnifrede Hanley of Paris is the guest of relatives in the Mayslick neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Calvert of the county are home from a visit to relatives in Bourbon.

Mrs. E. P. Pogue of Mayslick has been the guest of Mrs. Carrie Clark of Portsmouth the past week.

Attorney S. Jewell Rice of Ashland is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rice of near Lowieburg.

Mr. James Wilson of Lexington spent from Saturday to Monday with his aunt, Mrs. Thomas M. Wood of Limestone street.

Mrs. Mary J. Holliday left Saturday to spend a month or six weeks with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport.

Mrs. M. B. Walton and Miss Ida Walton, who have been guests of Mrs. A. J. Whippis of Covington for several weeks, have returned to their home near Germantown.

Mr. Peyton Wheeler, though still a very sick man, is resting well.

The C. W. R. M. of the Christian Church will meet with Mrs. John C. Everett this evening at 7 o'clock.

Miss Clara D. Bell, aged 22, of Lexington, Kentucky's wealthiest young woman, will soon wed Mr. Julius Walsh of St. Louis.

ALL NIGHT MEETING.
In addition to the meetings at 2:30 and 7 p. m. at the First Baptist Church, those who are willing to do so will be invited to remain all night for prayer. It is nothing unusual to watch all night by the sick bed; why not spend a night in prayer for the sick. It is expected that a goodly number will be thus willing. The 7 o'clock meeting will be dismissed at the usual time, so all who care to may leave. Do not stay away from preaching. Come for it if you cannot remain all night.

The meeting starts with good interest. One was baptised last night and a larger congregation greeted the Pastor both hours. Brother Clark will arrive today.

There are three cases of yellow fever in Havana, and Mobile, Ala., has quarantined against the entire island of Cuba.

Prisoners in the Jail at Kishineff revolted, and the troops fired into them, killing twenty-two and wounding a number.

William R. Hearst is said to have spent $500,000 in his campaign for Mayor of New York, and it is believed that Tammany spent almost a million.

Edward G. Cunliffe, who stole $101,000 from the Adams Express Company at Pittsburgh, was sentenced to six years in the Pen. All the money was recovered excepting $6,532.45.

Practically complete returns from the Ohio elections show that the Republicans have elected all the minor state officers. Both Democrats and Republicans are still claiming a majority in the Legislature.

Coroner Scarborough rendered a verdict at Mt. Vernon, O., in the Pierson case. He holds that the young student was tied to the railroad, but says it is impossible for him to determine who are the guilty parties.

Sir Chentung Liang Chang, the Chinese Minister, is an address before the Chicago Merchants' Club, said the harsh treatment of Chinamen by over-zealous American officials was the cause of the boycott movement in China.

The strike of the book and job printers for the eight-hour day with the nine-hour pay is in its ninth week, with no sign of weakening on either side. The Union has levied an assessment of 50 cents a week on every Union printer in the country, with a much larger assessment on those in cities where there are strikes. This will, it is claimed, yield $25,000 a week to pay strikers, and the Union says it is determined to win at any cost.

Not a cent wanted unless you are cured. If you are sick and ailing, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A great blessing to the human family. Makes you well; keeps you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. J. J. Wood & Son.

A $5 Suit of XTRAGOOD Clothes Free to the Best Boy Detective

The man who sells XTRAGOOD boys' clothes for Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Chicago, is coming to see us within ten days. We will give free any XTRAGOOD suit in our store to the first clever boy under 16 years of age who finds THIS man before he leaves town.

WHAT YOU MUST DO

When you think you have found the right man, say to him: "You are from Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Chicago, and sell XTRAGOOD Clothes." Remember these words. If you say anything else he will not answer.

While this is giving the little men considerable attention, we are yet mindful of the fancies of those who have passed the happy age of sixteen. IN MEN'S CLOTHING and Furnishings we have all that good dressers desire.
